Meeting of the senior officers and the sponsors

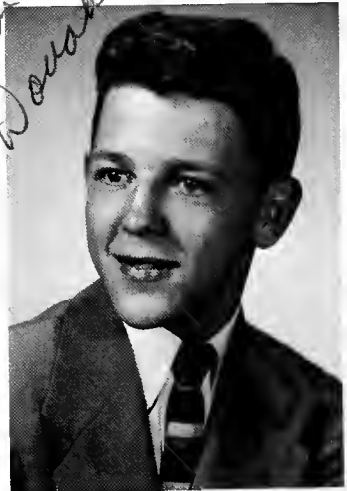

Leffert
Our stay in the seventh grade was very thrilling as we were always hurrying to and from classes for fear we would be late. It was difficult at times to find the right room, but we soon learned to find our way. Doris Peck, Carolyn Spurlock, Jane and Janet Leffert had the honor of becoming junior high cheer leaders for the year.

The eighth grade was just as exciting as the seventh had been. Mrs. Cain, the English teacher at that time, was chosen to be our sponsor. Each semester we had a class party which we all enjoyed.

Carolyn Spurlock was chosen cheerleader from our class again this year. The juniors chose the Burton twins and the Leffert twins to be punch girls and sarong girls for the prom. Also, some of the boys were chosen for the hat check.

Freshmen! How thrilling it was to be in high school at last. Mr. Griffith was our sponsor for that year. We picked up corn to start collecting money for our senior trip. Judy Burton, Janet Leffert, Clyde Dubea and Lewis Hoaks were on the library staff. Janet and Judy attended Ball State for a library conference. Judy Burton and Carolyn Spurlock were elected cheerleaders for the basketball team and Harvey Darche had the honor of playing on the varsity.

As sophomores we were now anxious to receive our long awaited class sweaters. They were blue, trimmed in black and white letters. During our stay in the sophomore class, we lost Judith French, DeAnne Schlater, Lynda Miller, and Gloria Hotler. Again Judy Burton was elected cheerleader for the basketball team. We had a magazine drive to make more money for our senior trip.

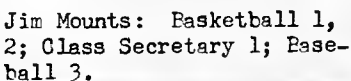

Our junior year in high school was a very busy one. We were anxious to receive our class rings, which were especially attractive. We enjoyed presenting our class play "Off the Track" in which all of us took part. Mrs. Miller was our director. Our most memorable moment during this year was the prom. Everyone worked hard, but the results were enjoyed by everyone on the evening of May 25. The theme was "Evening in Paris".

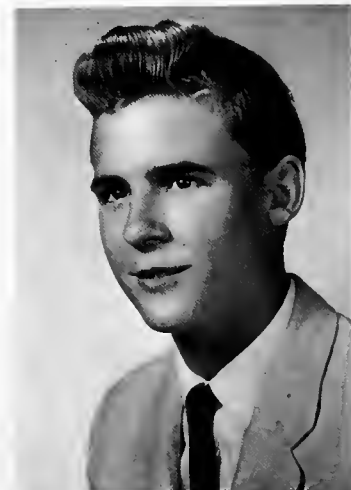

Jo Ann Lewellen: Sunshine 1,2,3,4; Paper Staff 4; Pep Club 2,3; Annual Staff 4; Class Treasurer 2.

Patricia Montgomery: Paper Staff 4; 4-H 1,2,3,4; Pep Club 2,3,4; 4-H Reporter 2.

Our class had the concessions at the basketball games which helped considerably in procuring money for the senior trip. Joyce Eurtion and Jane Gilsinger had the honor of being selected to attend Girls' State.

Well, we finally made it. Seniors at last!! Somehow it doesn't seem possible, but here we are and it feels wonderful to be a senior. We observe the underclassmen and remember how we did the same things when we were underclassmen. Jo Ann Lewellen was chosen to receive the D.A.R. award. Judy Eurtion was elected cheerleader for the basketball team. In September we had a very successful fish fry which helped considerably in payment for our senior trip. Joyce Eurtion, Janet Leffert, Jane Gilsinger, and Ed Shepard went to the I.H.S.P.A. held at Franklin College in October. At last we will graduate and have these many happy and exciting moments to carry with us forever.

As the juniors worked diligently toward a senior trip in 1959, they, too, found some moments to remember.

"Finders Creepers" had its moments and was definitely the grandest and most amusing mystery-comedy ever presented in this school! We will remember inspired performances by the entire cast and crew--which incidentally included the whole class.

Something new has been added in the lower hallway. It now is possible to get that "pause that refreshes". Business really has picked up in the basement on Friday nights with popcorn popping, apple polishing, potato chip cracking, and pop opening. They have also assisted the Pep Club by selling megaphones.

Preparing for their turn at publishing an annual, the class sent three of their staff members to the Press Conference at Franklin College on October 25 and 26.

Did you notice how everyone's shoes shined? This was brought about by a remarkable shoe polish sold by the juniors this year along with a sweet smelling air freshener and rust solvent.

Plans for the prom were in the making as this article went to press but nothing definite could be revealed.

They wish to take this opportunity to thank those who helped them at their class play and concession stand. Also, they would like to thank their sponsors, Mrs. Velora Miller and Mr. Merland Beyler.

These moments and many more will be theirs to remember.

The sophomores, with Mrs. Velma Dart their sponsor, started this year's memories by electing the following officers: Marsha Alkire, president; Karel Peck, vice-president; Leah Holland, secretary; Robert Wilson, treasurer; and Mary Ann Templin, reporter.

They received their slate gray class sweaters the early part of November, and they are now easily distinguished from the other students.

On October 16, 1957 they had their first class party of the year in the school gym where they danced, played games, and enjoyed the refreshments.

They had a very successful bake sale at the Halloween carnival on October 31, 1957. Their memories will continue to grow with each passing day.

FRESHMEN

First row, left to right: Mr. Davis, Sponsor, R. Musser, R. Pabeock, P. Bilyeu, W. Hartsock, K. Don, F. Fear, E. Purton, R. Pierson. Second row, left to right: L. Claussen, J. Mounts, M. Miller, V. The freshman class elected Freddy Bear, president, Jim Miller, vice president, James Burns, secretary, and Rose Musser, treasurer in September and they have Mr. Davis as their sponsor. On October 30th they had their class party. The following night the class had a dart throwing stand at the Halloween carnival. The day before Christmas vacation, December 20, they had a Christmas party.

Thus far this year, the freshmen have had these moments to remember.

Eighth Grade

The eighth grade has many moments to remember. . .the election of class officers. . . the Halloween festival. . .class parties. . .election of junior high cheerleaders. . .

Russell Jensen was elected eighth grade president. Tom Mattox is vice-president, Jim Sell is treasurer, and the secretary is Phil Babcock. They finally sneaked a girl into the roster when Phyllis Donahue was selected as reporter. Mr. William McGrath is the eighth grade sponsor.

On October 31, 1957. the eighth grade made money "hand over basketball" when they sponsored a basketball shoot to raise money for their treasury. They spent some of their hard earned cash at their class party November 7, 1957.

A real honor came to the class as all three of the junior high cheerleaders were elected from the eighth grade. Sherry Yocher, Phyllis Donahue, and Dianne Schwier were selected to get rousing cheers from the crowd.

At the close of the 1957-58 school year the eighth grade has these moments to remember.

Seventh Grade

The seventh grade moments have been quite memorable. It is their first year in junior high school and they have been getting accustomed to the new surroundings.

They held their first class meeting September 6, 1957 with Mrs. Pothuisje, their class sponsor. The officers elected are as follows: Vicki Zimmer, president; Jerry Crane, vice president; Patty Henderson, secretary; Martin Bear, treasurer; and Sharon Mahaffey, reporter.

One of their most memorable moments was the class party held November 13, 1957. Their guests were Mrs. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Pothuisje, Mr. Beyler, and Mr. Brown. They had a relay race, basketball shoot and danced to records.

Their memories are just beginning. In the years to come they will have many moments to remember.

Faculty

ADMINISTRATION

Often during the year our school is visited by the county superintendent, Mr. Norris. Goodland is always happy to have him return where he spent nine years as principal from 1942 to 1951. Mr. Norris has always shown cooperative spirit in performing his duties as county superintendent. He is ready at all times to advise and lend a helping hand where needed throughout the county.

Mr. Hawn joined the administration two years ago. He has been a member of the community for many years, operating a successful implement business. Since assuming his duties of trustee, Mr. Hawn has made many improvements in the physical plant. He secured a competent faculty, thus enabling our school to function successfully.

Mr. Sharp

Mr. Sharp came to our community in July, 1957, and immediately assumed his duties as principal of Goodland Public Schools. He came to our town from Pulaski where he had served eight successful years as principal of that school. We hope that our school will continue to grow through his leadership.

ENGLISH

The various English classes, taught by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Pothuisje, include grammar one semester and literature the other semester.

In grammar, students progress from learning parts of speech in the seventh grade, transitive and intransitive verbs as sophomores, and advanced composition as seniors. During literature classes, the seventh grade is contented with short stories while the sophomores read such classics as "Silas Marner" and "Julius Caesar", and the juniors study American literature. Senior English is slightly different since it deals with the study of drama, public speaking, and study of English literature.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Regardless of sputnik's throwing the limelight on science, it is in social studies, the area of people and their getting along together, that the world's fate is sealed.

Besides world history and geography, Mrs. Dart and Mr. McGrath share the teaching of American history, government, and economics.

The memories from these social studies classes will continue to make history as the moments progress.

History in the making!

Velma Dart

Edwards Brown

"Thar she blows!"

SCIENCE

Throughout the year Mr. Brown's science students were beckoned to their studies with sputniks orbiting through space and missiles heading skyward. The seventh and eighth graders found general science especially appealing as they studied jets and rockets, astronomy, force, power, energy, machines, and climate. In biology the freshmen learned of the importance of the one celled animal as well as the complexity of the largest mammal. In chemistry juniors and seniors memorized elements, valences and reactions hoping to see more deeply into the composition of materials.

Experiments and projects will give science students many moments to remember.

MATHEMATICS

The math instructors for this year were Mrs. Dart, Mr. Davis, Mrs. Pothuisje, Mr. Brown, and Mr. Sharp. The seventh and eighth grade studied arithmetic while the freshmen learned algebraic factoring and equations. In geometry, the tenth grade studied theorems involving planes, and in college algebra, some juniors and seniors studied a more advanced form of math.

They must have figured it out! $2 + 2 = 4$

Joyce Pothuisje

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country.

COMMERCE

Among the more important objectives of the business education department are the vocational contribution and the developing of economic literacy for all students.

The business department develops competency in marketable business skills to the point of employability. Along with the vocational training students may select certain courses of a general nature that will provide them with a proper social business, economic, and consumer education background. Business education is taught as an integral part of the total school program. Mr. Davis teaches the commercial courses.

HOME ECONOMICS

The BIG NEWS for the year in home economics is of course the acquisition of new equipment and the redecoration of the clothing laboratory. The new fluorescent lighting, rosy beige cabinets, and bright curtains make Goodland students feel that they are in a new building.

Additional equipment in the foods department has given Goodland a department to rival those in the newest of schools. New laundering equipment and additional cabinets have been added to the storage room.

Mrs. Hawley, the home economics teacher, has given the girls many homemaking tips which will bring them many moments to remember.

"... and just a pinch of arsenic."

Alice Hawley

An architect's dream!

Merland Beyler

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

After a year of dust collecting over forgotten machinery, Mr. Beyler has the shop once again buzzing with activity. The new heating system, fluorescent lights, and fresh paint have made a great improvement in the appearance and comfort.

Since it is the first year for both the seventh and eighth grade, they have learned many new skills. While part of the freshmen students were becoming acquainted with the tools of the shop, the others were learning the basic principles of mechanical drawing. The more advanced students were busy making useful furniture and detailed mechanical drawing.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

This modern dance really wears you out!

"Variety has been the keynote of the girls' physical education classes," according to Mrs. Hawley, physical education teacher.

In the fall the girls began their activities with softball and kickball. Later they tried volleyball, basketball, and improvised bowling. As an innovation this year, the girls included two dance units in their work. One included tap, ballet, and modern; the other was folk and square dancing. They concluded the year where they had begun with softball.

Sore muscles from "phys. ed." will certainly be moments to remember!

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Developing healthy bodies is equally as important as developing good minds. To do this Mr. McGrath, boys' physical education instructor, has used various means.

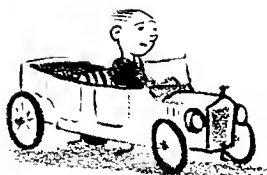

Vigorous activity followed by a stimulating shower prepares the boys for more strenuous activity in sports and work. Some of their activities include calisthenics, basketball, dodge ball, poison ball, and volley ball.

Besides building strong bodies, physical education can be fun. This class gives its students many pleasant moments to remember.

Where's the spare tire?

DRIVERS' TRAINING

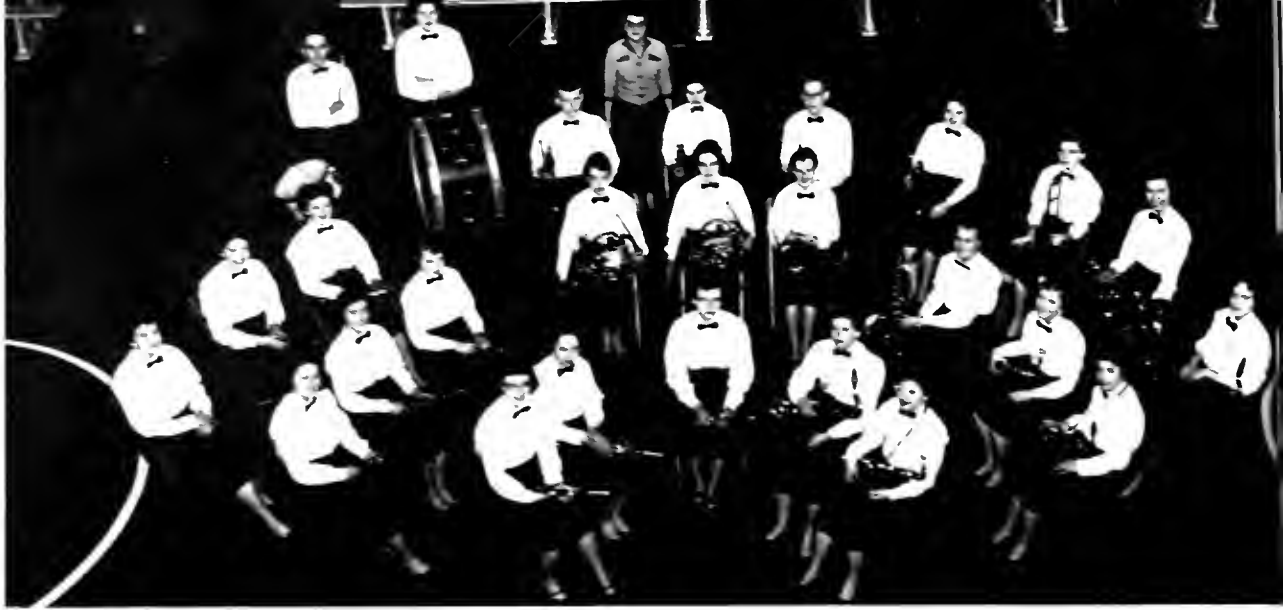

William McGrath

"At the sound of the gun, put your foot on the brake" are familiar words of Mr. McGrath, drivers training teacher, when he is testing the the students' reaction time.

Besides this nerve wracking test, drivers training pupils learn to park, park up hill and down hill, proper right and left turns, and many other driving skills. It isn't enough to know only how to maneuver a car; a good driver knows how to care for his machine. Learning the parts of the car, changing a tire, watching the gauges and indicators are all facts discovered in drivers training.

Mistakes that nearly kill the class, blocking traffic while turning around in the middle of the road are all moments that will be remembered for many years to come.

Band officers for the year are President Jane Gilsinger, Vice President Donald Cory, Secretary-Treasurer Suzanne Mitten, Student Director and Quartermaster Ralph Musser, Librarian Donna Beckley, and Assistant Librarian Suzanne Mitten.

Several band and choir members were on the entertainment program for the Junior play. Those helping were Judy Burton, Patricia Watts and Rose Musser from the choir and Patricia Harper, Patricia Watts, Joyce Babcock, and Jane Gilsinger from the band.

As their part in home game activities, the band played groups of numbers during the intervals between games and at half time.

Later in the year the band and choir participated in the spring concert.

Thirteen freshmen girls were initiated into this society in September.

Mrs. Pothuisje, Jane Leffert, and Judy Burton attended the annual Sunshine meeting Saturday, September 21, in the Travertine Room of the Sheraton-Lincoln Hotel, Indianapolis. At Thanksgiving the organization gave baskets of food to different families in Goodland. On December 18, 1957 they enjoyed a Christmas party at which they sang carols, played charades, and had refreshments. These are the moments they will remember in the years to come.

There are ninety-seven members in the pep club, which makes this the best and the biggest pep club ever.

There have been several pep sessions held on Friday afternoons, which have bolstered spirits during the games. A silent pep session held before the Brook game will always be remembered for its uniqueness.

The book before you began to take form about seven months ago and has not been laid aside for an instant since. The lights in the commerce room were often seen burning late at night while the staff and their "witty" adviser, Mrs. Hawley, struggled to get the annual out on time.

It all began one morning in early December when a frustrated photographer and two of the editors were rushing around taking pictures. From that time on there was never a dull moment.

Carol Ripley, Donna Beckley, Jane Leffert, and Jo Ann Lewellen were sent out on a series of afternoon excursions with instructions to get ads. They did.

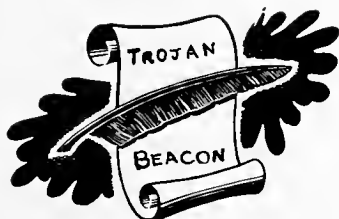

About this time the seniors began pursuing you until you bought your book.

The 1958 Tivoli has now emerged, a record in picture and print of this year's moments. We trust you will enjoy it for many years.

PAPER STAFF

An issue of the Trojan Beacon begins to take form when articles are assigned to the members of the staff. A knowledge of jujitsu comes in quite handy when the editor attempts to secure the reporters' articles on the deadline date.

Since articles never need to be rewritten (??), they are typed on stencils and proof-read before being sent to press.

When the paper comes out, familiar cries of "Is my name in there?" "I didn't know that!" "Look at this!" echo through the halls of G.H.S. as each student rushes to get his paper from the editor.

It was with regret that the paper staff sent their last issue of the Trojan Beacon to press on April 25th.

"I don't remember the title or the author, but it was about. . ."

For a good book, the library is always on hand to give you the best. This year the library has added a set of World Book Encyclopedias and many other new books to its shelves.

The library always provides reference books and material for research and term papers. The newspaper and latest magazines provide students with the opportunity of catching up on current events or just reading for pleasure.

Mrs. Miller, school librarian, is assisted by several students who are especially interested in the work. As assistants they gain knowledge of books and the functions of a library. Plans are being made to send some Goodland representatives to the Hoosier Student Library Assistant Conference in Lafayette next fall.

The many memories you can gain from books will be lasting.

Goodland opened the 1957-58 basketball season under their coach William McGrath with eight returning lettermen and a promising group of underclassmen. The lettermen were as follows: Harvey Darche, Robert Donahue, Ray Brown, Richard Donahue, Kenneth Don, John Weiland, Ralph Musser, and William Donahue. The starting five had good height with Harvey Darche 6'3", Ray Brown 6'4", Robert Donahue 5'11", Kenneth Don 6', and William Donahue 5'10". Robert Donahue and Harvey Darche are the co-captains this season.

"A" TEAM BASKETBALL

The first game was dropped to Remington, however, after the team had first had a battle with the flu. In the next games Goodland proved that they had a team to be honored and as this article went to press they had and 11-5 won-loss record.

The Trojans participated in two four-way tourneys. In the four-way tourney at Kentland the Trojans lost a close battle to Fowler 52-50. They came back in the consolation to defeat Kentland 60-55. In the Rensselaar four-way tourney the Trojans defeated Lowell in the first game 56-50. In the championship game the Trojans lost to the Rensselaar Bombers 59-33.

One of the factors that may have caused them some trouble in the tourneys was Harvey Darche's ankle. He was out of practice for a few weeks and missed four games.

Ray Brown, Harvey Darche, Richard Donahue, and Robert Donahue were awarded basketball jackets. They have been a credit to the team and are worthy of the fine jackets.

This is going to press before the season ends and we will have in our memories the moments to come as well as those that have passed.

The record as this went to press: 11-5

"B" TEAM BASKETBALL

The Trojan B's have had rather a disappointing season thus far, but this is due mostly to inexperience. The first five have been predominately sophomores; however, the freshmen have seen considerable action also. Bob Wilson and Alvin Hoaks at forwards, Vertrees Burton at center, and Everett Spurlock and Bob Henderson at guards have been the starting five most of the time. The "B" team record to date is 1-7. The boys will have to hustle if they are to improve on that record.

The baseball team consisted of Ray Brown, Karel Peck, Bill Donahue, and Bob Donahue in the infield, while Kenneth Don, John Weiland, and Richard Donahue played the outfield. Harvey Darche and Robert Donahue shared pitching duties, while Ralph Musser was their battery mate. Since Goodland High has no baseball field, all the games were played on the road. The team won over Pine Twp., but lost two games to Remington.

TRACK

Since Goodland's track team won the Newton County track title last year, this year's team will be counted upon to successfully defend their title. The team will be led by mostly seniors and juniors. Some of the boys will represent Goodland in the track sectional at Lafayette.

The 7th and 8th grade team, at the time this was printed, had enjoyed victories over Morocco and Mt. Ayr. Although they lost more games than they won, the boys obtained actual playing experience, which helped build them for the future. Besides coaching the 7th and 8th grade, Mr. Franklin is kept busy coaching the 5th and 6th grade team. These boys won six games during the season while losing only four.

GO GET 'EM YOU TROJANS, GO GET 'EM!!

If you attended any of Goodland's basketball games this year, you saw the cheerleaders, headed by Judy Burton, leading the crowd in this yell and many others. These girls did much during the season to keep the morale and the spirits of both the fans and the teams high. The varsity cheerleaders were also kept busy planning and supervising the pep sessions before a number of the games.

Juniors High Cheerleaders

Morale boosters are as important to the junior high and grade teams as they are to the varsity teams. The junior high cheerleaders spent many hours during the year cheering their teams to victory.

The members of the sixth grade, besides doing their regular school work, such as arithmetic, reading, social studies, English, health, and science, have participated in a number of other activities. Some of these activities are the school boys' patrol, 4-H, and Scouting. Most of the boys are members of the basketball team.

BOYS' PATROL

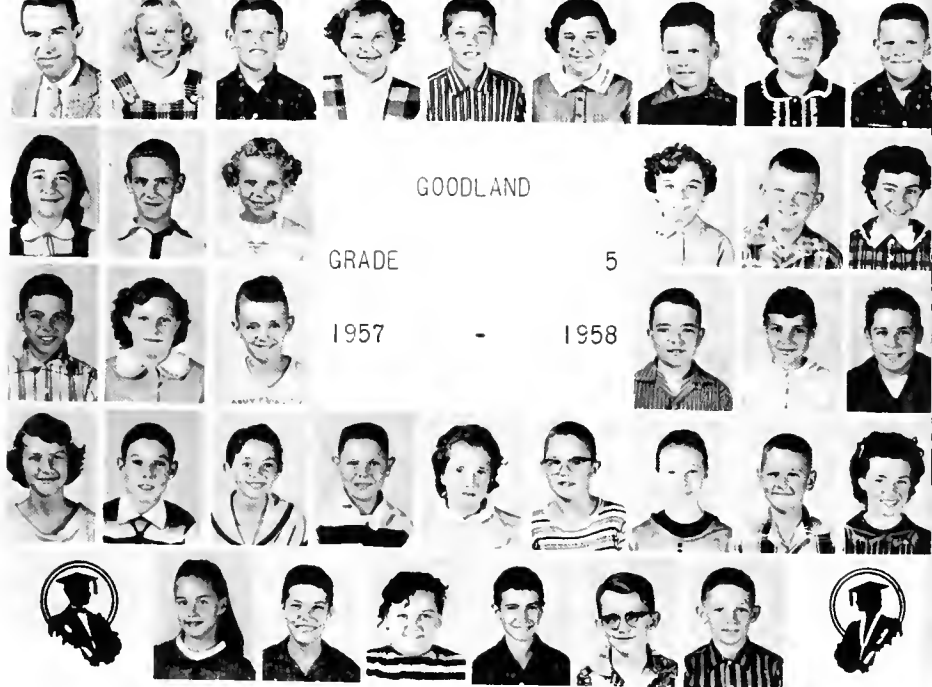

The patrol boys, under the direction of Mr. Jack Wilson, the traffic officer, see that the students cross the highway safely when going to and from school. Rain or shine, they are always there on time.

Fifth Grade

Their regular daily work includes outside reading, arithmetic, health and science, English, social studies, writing, reading and spelling. Occasional dictionary lists, the World Books, and special reports are used to challenge the students who have extra talent or time.

Noble are not pictured.

Fourth Grade

One of their first projects was a weather calendar which included reading the outside temperature, the appearance of the sky, and the direction of the wind.

At Christmas time they made transparencies, for their classroom doors, to resemble church windows.

Another project was writing business letters. They received helpful information from many companies. One company supplied them with tooth brushes and tooth paste at a very low cost.

Third Grade

Besides regular lessons, the third grade has done several interesting things this year.

In art the students have done several free hand lessons, correlated with Indian and pioneer life. The students have also worked with color study as related to dress, homes and products.

In health the pupils have made nutrition books of pictures and the importance of nutrition.

For social studies the student's books are a collection of art, maps, textiles, homes and clip-pings.

The pupils are especially proud of their reading. Each pupil has averaged twenty outside reading books for the semester.

Hotler, J. Carroll, B. Messersmith, R. Williams, P. Bower, L. Hoaks.

The students have enjoyed using little skits to portray the characters in their reading stories. These short plays encourage the pupils to think through the plot of the story and to make up appropriate dialogue.

A store was constructed in the room and a variety of articles were purchased and sold. Each boy and girl had real money with which to make the purchase and the store-keeper had to make change. This means was used to speed up the learning process of adding and subtracting in arithmetic.

First Grade

The beginners have been a busy group learning not only to read, write, and spell, but also a great deal about science, nature studies, family living, safety in the home and on the street.

These activities begin the training of the boys and girls, who will take their places as well-adjusted, useful citizens in the community in which they live.

First And Second Grade

The combination of fifteen first graders and twelve second graders have been doing a number of different projects this year. The pupils do their health and safety and posters together. The postal unit was centered around Valentines Day. The second grade students read stories before the room. By doing this they fill their cards with book etamps.

BUS DRIVERS

Mr. John Allen, Mr. Vernon Cloutier, Mr. Joy Hall, and Mr. Eldo Simonin see to it that the out of town students arrive to school on time in the morning and arrive home safely after school. In addition, they provide transportation to the ball-games and other extra activities.

CUSTODIANS

From early in the morning until late in the day, Mr. Charles Burns and Mr. Ernest DeGroot are working to keep the building warm and clean for the students and faculty.

COOKS

For a tasty meal, Mrs. Mary Stombaugh and Mrs. Mary Lowe are always on hand to serve the students. New trays were added to the cafeteria for more convenience. With the new inter-com, the students enjoy music while they are eating.
